

Martin Soler Brut Rose

Bodega History:

The Soler family has been growing grapes in the Penedes region since the early 17th century. In 1965 they decided to produce and bottle their own estate wine and cava.

Today their family continues to care for the same twenty hectares of vineyards that were planted by their ancestors and have surrounded the cellar for over two centuries. This is their legacy and they take great pride in ensuring the continuity of their family's dedication to their vineyards, wines and cavas.
